

MARFORSOC Judge Advocate

Marine Forces Special Operations Command (MARFORSOC) is soliciting applications from interested reserve components judge advocates for Active Duty Operational Support (ADOS) orders for (6) months with the potential for an additional (6) month augmentation.

Position Description / Requirements: Marine Forces Special Operations Command (MARFORSOC) is the Marine service component to U.S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM). A judge advocate within MARFORSOC can be expected to handle a host of legally complex issues in the areas of military justice, international law, fiscal, cyber and intelligence law, ethics, and administrative law, along with a whole host of other mission-dependent requirements. A judge advocate at MARFORSOC needs to be able to foster relationships and promote collaboration across numerous subordinate commanders with highly demanding missions and operational obligations. While experience in an operational environment is preferred, it is not required to apply. Assignment may entail travel and training opportunities, consistent with the roles/responsibilities as a member of the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate.

Additional Information:

- The ADOS Orders include Permanent Change of Station to Camp Lejeune with BAH. No per diem.
- Length of ADOS Orders is for (6) months with the potential for an extension of an additional (6) months, subject to mission requirements and operational tempo.
- TS/SCI eligibility is required for ADOS Orders to MARFORSOC. However, TS/SCI eligibility is not required to screen/apply.

Application Materials: Interested Captains and Majors should submit the following to MARFORSOC OMB (marsoc_osja_omb@socom.mil) for review and coordination.

- Brief personal statement / correspondence indicating why the officer wants to apply, and what makes them a good fit for the opportunity.
- Security Manager verification of current security clearance (Naval Letter Format).
- Master Brief Sheet
- Last 3 Fitness Reports

If you have additional questions, the POC for this matter is the Deputy Staff Judge Advocate at MARFORSOC, Major Chris Davis at christopher.m.davis1.mil@socom.mil.
